Underground service conductors will be installed in lieu of the overhead conductors at the Customer's request, and upon payment by the Customer of the installed cost of the underground conductors after allowance for the cost of equivalent overhead service conductors and any trenching and backfilling provided by the Customer.

DEFINITIONS:

A "Luminaire," as defined by the Illuminating Engineering Society, is a complete lighting unit consisting of a lamp (bulb), together with parts designed to distribute the light, to position and protect the lamp, and connect the lamp to the power supply.

A "Conventional" luminaire is supported by a bracket that is mounted on the side of an ordinary wood pole or an ornamental pole. This is the only type of luminaire offered where service is to be supplied from overhead conductors, although this luminaire may also be used when service is supplied from underground conductors.

A "Contemporary" luminaire is of modern design and is mounted on top of an ornamental pole. Underground conductors are required.

A "Traditional" luminaire resembles an Early American carriage lantern and is mounted on top of a pole. It requires an ornamental pole and underground conductors to a source of supply.

An "Ornamental" pole is one made of concrete or fiberglass.
