OFFICE OF THE
CITY CLERK

City of Vero Beach
Indian River County, Florida

TO ALL CANDIDATES FILING FOR CITY COUNCIL

This Candidate's Guide is an informational packet for those interested in campaigning for election in the City of Vero Beach. I respectfully urge you to take the time to read all of the materials provided. It is most important that not only the candidate be familiar with the laws and the regulations but the Campaign Treasurer must be knowledgeable with the laws as well.

Florida Statute 106.021 requires you to file your appointment of Campaign Treasurer and Designation of Campaign Depository with the City Clerk before any campaign contributions are received or any campaign expenditures are made.

You may discuss your candidacy at any time; however, you are considered an "announced" candidate only when your qualifying officer receives your Appointment of Campaign Treasurer and Designation of the Campaign Depository (Form DS-DE9).

Personal Checks, Cash or a Cashiers Check may not be used to file for a candidacy. The Filing Officer will only accept a check drawn on the campaign account.

Each person and/or candidate who seeks to qualify for election or retention in office, and each political committee, shall appoint a campaign treasurer. Each person who seeks to qualify for election to, or retention in office shall appoint a campaign treasurer and designate a primary campaign depository prior to qualifying for office (106.021 F.S.).

No person shall be eligible to hold the office of council member unless he or she is at least 18 years old and a registered elector of the City of Vero Beach (Section 5.01 City Code).

I would appreciate it if you would call me should you have any questions. Please remember all material is subject to change by the Florida Legislature. Please come in and see us or call 978-4700, if we can help you. Congratulations on becoming involved, and we wish each of you a successful campaign.

Tammy K. Vock, CMC
City Clerk
