

A great online resource was just launched by the FL Chamber – has a very informative FAQ section: <https://www.flchamber.com/essential-services-order/>

The Florida Chamber has added a new page overnight to their website that is an incredible resource for chambers and small businesses. Not only does it contain information about the Essential Services and Activities Order (with links to the specifics), but it also includes a comprehensive FAQ section dealing with Essential Businesses, COVID Response, Small Businesses, Employee Benefits, Unemployment Compensation PLUS you can add your own question for their team to research and answer.
